

ALBANY

Oregon's Best Kept Secret

www.albanyvisitors.com

LOCATION:

Albany is located in the heart of the Willamette Valley just 44 miles north of Eugene, 69 miles south of Portland, and 24 miles south of Salem, Oregon's state capitol. Nestled between the Coast and the Cascade Mountains, Albany's location allows an easy drive to ocean beaches or snow covered slopes. Albany lies on the path of the Willamette and Calapooia Rivers, the Amtrak railroad route, US Highway 99E, Highway 20, and I-5. I-5 exits to Albany include Exit 228, 233, 234A, and 234B.

POPULATION:

City of Albany: 47,470

Linn County: 109,320

(Center for Population Research and Census, Portland State University, July 2007, www.upa.pdx.edu)

CITY CLIMATE:

Conditions are mild with average annual precipitation of 40 inches. Temperatures in Albany and Linn County are rarely below 25 degrees in the winter or above 95 degrees in summer.

(Oregon Climate Service, July 2003, www.ocs.orst.edu)

LOCAL GOVERNMENT:

The City of Albany exercises its powers through a home rule charter under a Council-Manager management style. A directly elected non-partisan Mayor with a two-year term leads a six-member, non-partisan City Council who are elected to four-year, overlapping terms. A full-time City Manager administers the affairs of the city for the Council.
