

Oregon Historic Properties Crossword

Check out these great facts about a few of our wonderful historic properties in Oregon, then visit their websites to learn more!

Created using the Crossword Maker on TheTeachersCorner.net

Across

4. Ingredient for pioneer soap and for making candles. Visit newellpioneervillage.com to learn more about pioneer days.
6. The second most powerful waterfall in North America is the _____ located in Oregon City. Visit orccity.org/parksandrecreation/ermatinger-house for more information.
8. Oregon's first capital, known as Oregon's hometown, is _____. Visit orccity.org/parksandrecreation/ermatinger-house for more information.
12. The Holmes House is sometimes called the _____ Farm because Louisa Holmes once grew these on the property.
13. Author of the Deepwood Estate namesake book. Visit deepwoodmuseum.org to learn more.
15. Quigga, Harriette and Marcy live on this antique mechanism in historic downtown Albany, Oregon. Head over to albanyvisitors.com to see the Star of the Show.
20. Oregon's First Female owned landscape Architecture Business In Pacific Northwest and designers of Deepwood's formal gardens. Visit deepwoodmuseum.org to learn more.
22. Comb used to prepare wool for spinning. Visit newellpioneervillage.com to learn more about pioneer days.
23. Henry Pittock owned and edited this newspaper. Visit pittockmansion.org to learn more.
24. The Architect of SMJ House. Visit smjhouse.org for more information.
25. Precursor to the vacuum cleaner. Visit newellpioneervillage.com to learn more about pioneer days.
26. The Albany Regional Museum was first established in 1980 in the basement of this Albany, Oregon, library before moving to its current location. Find the answer at armuseum.com

Down

1. This family built the first frame house in Albany, Oregon. The structure is now the most accurate restoration of a pioneer-era home in the state. For the answer, go to monteithhouse.org
2. Oregon's first state architect and Architect of the Deepwood Museum & Garden Queen Anne Victorian. Visit deepwoodmuseum.org to learn more.
3. Wreaths and jewelry made from this natural substance, was worth more than silver. Visit newellpioneervillage.com to learn more about pioneer days.
5. Henry Pittock and his daughters Kate and Lucy all climbed this Oregon mountain, which is visible from his house. Visit pittockmansion.org to learn more.
7. In 1845, a _____ took place in Oregon City that named the City of Portland. Visit Ermatinger House to learn more.
9. Historic house built high in Portland's West Hills in the 1920s. Visit pittockmansion.org to learn more.
10. Started the Barlow Road with Sam Barlow. Visit philipfosterfarm.com to learn more.
11. The first territorial governor of Oregon, Joseph _____, gave his inaugural address from the Holmes House.
13. Instrument used to prepare the ground for planting. Visit newellpioneervillage.com to learn more about pioneer days.
14. Shelton McMurphey Johnson House faces downtown Eugene from it's place on the south side of this prominent landscape feature.
16. Eight of these structures span Linn County streams and represent a slower pace of life. Click the Dive Into History section at albanyvisitors.com.
17. A big rocking chair sits on this historic porch, greeting little children. Visit acgilbert.org for more information.
18. What is the name of the only Frank Lloyd Wright designed structure in Oregon? Visit thegordonhouse.org for more information.
19. In 1784, Dr. John McLoughlin, Chief Factor of Fort Vancouver, was born in Riviere-du- Loop, Quebec in this country.
21. In 1957, Dr. McLoughlin was named the _____ of Oregon. Visit Fort Vancouver National Historic Site to learn more.